My Qualifications and Responsibility

My qualifications include a Bachelor of Science and an Advanced Diploma of Natural Medicine. I have been registered a Naturopath since 1999 with the Australian Naturopathic Practitioners Association (ANPA).

My responsibility to you when purchasing my services is to give health recommendations (including supplements, dietary and lifestyle advice) based on my training and years of clinical experience. I do my best to take all reasonable care and due diligence and strive to commit to best practice in my field. It is a requirement of my association to undertake Continuing Education every year to ensure I keep my skills up to date and learn about new research and developments in Naturopathy.

Your Responsibility

Your responsibility while working together with me is to commit to your own health, safety, and wellbeing. I also request that if I have recommended dietary or lifestyle changes, please try them to the best of your ability. If you have any problems arise, please let me know. While we are working together, I will do my best to help you achieve your health goals. However, your health is your responsibility. I am here to guide and support you through your health journey.

Important Information

Here's a few things you need to know about supplements, especially liquid herbal formulas - they don't taste great. If you have a sensitive palate, please let me know and we'll look at alternatives for you. If you feel unwell in anyway after taking any supplements or herbal medicines, I have recommended please contact me. While adverse reactions are rare, they can still happen.

If you are feeling very unwell and unable to contact me, please seek medical advice. It is also essential to let me know if your pregnant or trying to get pregnant as there are supplements that are contraindicated in these circumstances.

Please also advise of all current medications you are taking at present as there is potential interactions that can happen between certain medications and supplements that I may wish to recommend.

Before booking a consultation with me, please consider the following: Are you ready to make change? Naturopathy may involve using things such as herbal medicines or nutritional supplements, but changes in diet and lifestyle are equally as important. I often say to clients "I'll help put you on a path to get well, but you need to walk on that path daily without me to succeed".

Risks around my products or services may arise if you aren't 100% accurate with information provided - i.e., names and doses of current medications. Please check your medications, write their names and doses down on a list and bring them with you.

I have also found that some clients self-prescribe over the counter supplements after a conversation with a friend or relative. This may run the risk of potential interactions with supplements I have prescribed. If you are not sure, please ask before purchasing.

Naturopaths are not medical professionals and are unable to formally diagnose medical conditions, if this is what you are seeking, please book an appointment with your doctor.

Sometimes a combination of services between myself and other Medical or Health professionals are needed to help you achieve your health goals. If you are concerned about any of the recommendations I make during a consultation, you may wish to seek a second opinion from a relevant Medical or Health professional.

My area of interest is working with female clients, age 30-60 years, looking for support around perimenopause, menopause, and associated conditions such as Thyroid conditions, Stress management and blood sugar management. I also enjoy working with clients managing gut health concerns.

I do not make any guarantees or warranties about the accuracy of any material displayed on this website, with the exception of any non-excludable consumer 10 guarantees and other consumer protection provisions set out in the Australian Consumer Law. I am human and errors creep in despite the best of intentions. If you see something that doesn't seem right, please let me know.

I will arrive on Zoom approx. 5 minutes before our allocated time. If I have been held up, I will ring or email you regarding the delay. If attending a face-to-face appointment at my clinic at Goodwood, please allow some extra few minutes to come a little earlier as we do not have onsite parking. Appointment Policies

I realize that life sometimes gets in the way of appointments made. I request 24 hours' notice if you need to reschedule or cancel your appointment. Please note a fee of 50% of the consultation fee will be charged if less than 24 hours' notice is given of a cancellation of your appointment. If an emergency has occurred and the cancellation fee has been raised, please let me know, I'm happy to negotiate a possible waiver of this fee if circumstances are beyond your control.

Refund Policy & Consumer Guarantees

No refunds for change of mind, so clients are encouraged to consider carefully whether a purchase is right for them before they make their payment.

If a minor problem has occurred, such as during an online consultation the internet may cut out, or either myself or you are ill and unable to make call. To resolve this minor problem - we can try either a WhatsApp video call or phone call via mobile phone, or if either of us are unwell, I will contact you to make an alternate time to reschedule.

If you feel that there is a problem with my services, please let me know within 48 hours. I am keen to understand what has gone wrong if you are unhappy so that I can address your concerns and try to find a mutually acceptable solution.

I take my obligations under Australian Consumer Law seriously and will do my best to address any issues that arise. However, even if there is a major problem, my liability is strictly limited to: - replacing the goods or providing the services again; or - if I am unable to do so within a reasonable time, paying the cost of having the relevant goods or services supplied to you again.

If a service has been partially delivered and the client changes their mind, the client will be eligible for a refund for the portion of the remaining service, minus a 5% administration fee for processing the refund. For example, if 60% of the service had been delivered, the refund eligible would be 35% (40% service remaining - 5% admin fee to process refund)

During an online consultation I may recommend supplements that I will get shipped to you from a third-party supplier. If you are coming in to see me in a face-to-face consultation and recommend supplements, I will provide them to you at the time of the consultation. If you have concerns about damaged stock once you have opened the supplements, please contact me to organize replacement stock.

Respectful Communication

I reserve the right to delete any comments on my website or social media accounts which is rude, offensive or which I deem unacceptable. Be polite and play nicely please!
